Fair and continued warm today and probably Monday; variable winds, mostly southwest and west.

No. 428.-No. 19,254.

WASHINGTON, D. C., SUNDAY MORNING. JUNE 15, 1913°

FIVE CENTS.

HE OFFERED BRIBE TO SENATOR WORKS

California Carpenter Arrested Bryan Says It Is to Cement Drillers and Laborers Are En-Following Attempt to Get Postmastership.

IGNORANT IT WAS CRIME TO TRY TO PAY FOR JOB

Legislator Here Says He Never Pan-American Diplomats Hear Sec- Fifty-Sixth Street and Lexington Heard of Santa Barbara Applicant Until Letter Came.

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., June 14 .- C. Ercanbrach was arrested by a deputy United States marshal today on a federal indictment charging him with an attempt he Department of Justice at Washington and an indictment was returned.

Is a Carpenter.

Ercanbrach is a carpenter, who is con-getting a political job. I thought that was the common practice." He was taken to Los Angeles tonight.

Confirmed by Works.

"I received a letter from Ercanbrach pointment as postmaster of Santa Barpara about two months ago," said Sena- Dr. Muller's native land. hat the Department of Justice was inrestigating the case I did not know that he man had been arrested until this which he offered me the bribe. In his etter the man gave the name of several ask them for references regarding him. erly group." He also referred me to a bank. He asked me to destroy the letter if I did not ntend to accept the bribe.

"Immediately upon the receipt of the etter I turned it over to the Postmaster Seneral, who, in turn, placed the matter n the hands of the Department of lustice. I wrote to the people to whom Ercanbrach referred me in his letter and old them what he had done. I also notiled the ank.' Senator Works said he did not know hether he would be called to Santa Barbara to testify against Ecanbrach.

UNCLE SAM TO AID OREGON.

Government and State to Co-Operate in Irrigation Project.

In conformity with the policy announced by the new Secretary of the Interior early states and the federal government in the tion service to enter into an agreement follow." with Oregon to co-operate in the joint onstruction of an irrigation project

For the Tumalo project, comprising 5,000 acres, where private enterprise President for a like amount from the rec-lamation fund for the reclamation service resident for a like amount from the recdevelop the proposed project if enuperable legal obstacles.

TROPHY FOR MAYFLOWER

Presidential Yacht Makes Best Gunnery Showing in Her Class. The Secretary of the Navy has ad-

Mayflower; Lieut. R. Henderson, the ex- the President of Brazil toward the United cutive officer, and Lieut. M. E. Manley. he ordnance officer, commending them pon the fine showing of the Mayflower n the recent elementary practice, that essel having attained the highest mulcunboat class participating in the com-

The Mayflower is awarded the trophy or gunnery for vessels of the gunboat lass for the competition year 1912-13.

ESOLA GETS FIVE YEARS.

ing Frisco Bunko Gang. SAN FRANCISCO, June 14.-A sen-ence of five years in prison was imposed oday on Frank Esola, a former city de- Point, then return to New York to be farmer out of $900.

go on trial jointly. The maximum sentence is ten years.

of the "bunko" gang, known as the Forty Thieves," led to the indictment of the officers charged with having protected the gang and having received part of the proceeds of its operations, The district attorney asserted today Secretary of State Bryan, the minister of that he had evidence that an organized gang of pickpockets had enjoyed sim-

EARTHQUAKE WIDELY FELT.

Southeastern Europe Feels Jolt, But No Damage Is Done. LONDON, June 14.—Dispatches from arious points in southeastern Europe indicate the earthquake reported today rom Sofia was widespread. At Buchrest two distinct shocks, beginning at Wood, Henry White. John Bassett 11:43 in the morning, were experienced. At Philippopotis the seismic movement egan at 11:45. Several towns in southern Hungary also were affected. In none of these places, however, was there any

POLICY OF WILSON TOLD DR. MULLER

Nations of Hemisphere Into Group.

GIVEN FOR BRAZILIAN

retary of State Describe Ambition ostmaster here and is alleged to have and ambassador to this country on a were entombed. Late this evening six written a letter to Senator Works offer- special mission to return the visit in bodies had been recovered and five were

> Secretary of State Bryan pledged the were rescued, but one of them probably tions. Ambassador Da Gama acted as that any of the entombed workmen have toastmaster, and added his words of escaped death. peace to the others.

Gathered together for the banquet was a distinguished company of prominent men, including practically the entire South American diplomatic corps, at this point, the upper one for local Vice President Marshall, leading senators and representatives, Secretary of War Garrison, Gen. Leonard Wood which caved in. a sprinkling of government of-

American building never appeared to better advantage than for the banquet. Through the west windows of the banquet hall could be seen the new loggia, illuminated, and the ornamental gardens and lake with moonlight offering me $1,000 if I secured his ap- was everywhere, and the banquet glistening across it. Tropical foliage seemed almost to be taking place in President Wilson's Policy.

Continuing, he said "it was the ambition of our fathers that we should con-

South America, mentioning the fact that of the numbered brass checks found in he had discovered that the educational systems of the United States and of several of the Latin American republics are

White House the best output of our educational institutions that our nation has yet seen. He is a type of our highest any potentate in the world. We are prone to speak of the presidency as the highest tions of most Latin American republics have been patterned after that of the United States, and that therefore the United States likes to think of itself as the mother of them all and is proud to be a model for them to follow. Dr. Muller was spoken of in glowing terms by Mr. Bryan, who praised him as Secretary Bryan completed his regular address, and then drew from his pocket a manuscript, which he announced was ailed, Oregon has appropriated $450,000, a speech in Portuguese. When he read nd Secretary Lane has agreed to ask the it he was warmly applauded. It was a tribute to Dr. Muller, to the President of Brazil and to Brazil itself.

The President of Brazil was then toast-the presidents of all the Latin American republics, and then Dr. Muller was introduced. As he does not speak English, he spoke in French. He told particularly of the influence on the world of continued peace between all the nations of the western hemisphere. He mentioned his warm reception in this country and conveyed the warm feeling of friendship held by Leaves at Midnight Tonight.

at a luncheon given in his honor this vester company paid Rossington $8,545 lple of any of the fifteen vessels of the afternoon at the Chevy Chase Club by for services during February and for Bethlehem, Pa., where he will visit the steel works. He will spend tomorrow be entertained at luncheon Tuesday by Former Detective Convicted of Aid- the American Manufacturers' Export As- written at Fort Washington, Md., May welfare."

ective, for having aided Michael Gallo, the guest at a dinner given by the convicted "bunko" man, in fleecing a New York Chamber of Commerce, and will then go to Boston. After a series Pa., to mail and was never sent. Recent-Efforts to lighten Esola's sentence to for a trip to the west, concluding at of entertainments there he will leave ly Mr. Richards died and the letter, hree years in return for pleas of guilty San Francisco, where he is to select the the seven others indicted on similar size for the Brazilian building of the charges fell through and the seven will Panama exposition. He will then return to New York and leave for Brazil. The Brazilian battleship Nimas Geraes, which brought Dr. Muller to Evidence furnished by Gallo and others the United States, is scheduled to sail today from Norfolk for New York.

On Wednesday he will go to West

List of Those Invited.

affairs of Brazil; Vice President Marshall. Costa Rica, the minister of Salvador, the minister of Venezuela, the minister of Argentina, the minister of Uruguay, the minister of Chile, the minister of Haiti, the minister of Guatemala, the minister of the Dominican Republic, the minister of Colombia, the minister of Honduras, the minister of Paraguay, the minister of Panama, the minister of Nicaragua, the charge d'affaires of Mexico, the charge d'affaires of Cuba.

of the Navy Daniels, Senator Bacon, Senator Root, Senator Stone, Senator Fletch-Representative Flood, Gen. Leonard Moore, counselor of the Department of State: John E. Osborne, assistant secretary of state; Dudley Field Malone, third assistant secretary of state; Representative Bartholdt, Nathaniel Wilson, John (Continued on Second Page.)

been recovered were foreigners, and their identifications await the tallying their clothing.

citizenship. He wields more power than Former Minister to China Testombed on New York

Construction.

Avenue Scene of Tragedy When

Timbers Give Way.

Shoring Timbers Gave Way.

in charge of the public service commission, after an investigation, announced that the cave-in was not directly traceable to a blast. The rock at this point is faulty, he said, and the shor-ing timbers gave way for a distance

Firemen early on the scene discovered that a rock weighing several tons had fallen on some of the buried men.

It could not be moved by the means at hand and probably will have to be blasted before the bodies underneath

Three priests descended into the tun-el in excavation buckets to administer the last rites of the church if any of the men were rescued still alive.

Most of the dead whose bodies have of twenty to twenty-five feet.

it can be recovered.

TWO INJURED RESCUED.

tifies in Harvester Trust Suit Hearing.

CHICAGO, June 14.-William J. Calnoun, former United States minister to China, appeared today as a witness for the defense at the International Harester Company and trust suit hearing. He was questioned about an alleged lobby, by means of which, the government charges, an investigation of the harvester company by the Kansas legislature was prevented in 1903. Mr. Calhoun said that the harvester company had employed an attorney in Topeka on his advice to look after its interests in Kansas while legislation nostile to it was pending.

"This attorney-W. H. Rossington, now dead-was told," said Mr. Calhoun, that no matter how harmful the legislation proposed might be, nothing, under any circumstances, was to be paid the men who were behind the Turkish ambassador to Germany, Os-framing of the bills. He said he was man Nizami Pasha, and Cardinal von present when Cyrus H. Bentley, then Kopp, who, respectively, presented to counsel for the company, delivered this caution to Rossington.

"Was there any further meeting on the question of what was to be done?" "No, that was the end of it." Charles Blood Smith, a member of the Topeka law firm to which Rossington belonged, denied that his firm

March, 1903.

BELATED FIFTY-TWO YEARS

vester company. On cross-examina-

Washington Delivered Yesterday.

POTTSVILLE. Pa., June 14.-A letter sociation, and at dinner later. Lloyd Griscomb, former American ambassador 30, 1861, by Henry C. Russell of Pottsto Brazil, will be toastmaster at this ban- ville. a civil war soldier, reached his widow in Pottsville today through the regular channels of the United States mail. The letter had been intrusted to a comrade, M. E. Richards of Pottstown. sealed and stamped, was found among some old papers. It was posted and arrived this morning. Russell died about five years ago.

The letter contained what the writer said was a piece of the shirt of Col. E. E. Elsworth, worn when he was shot and killed a short time before at Alexandria. Va., when he hauled down the Confeder-Dr. Lauro Muller, minister of foreign ate flag from the Marshall House. The letter is in an excellent state of preser-

MISS HAYES LEADS SESSIONS.

Work Being Done in New York. ASHEVILLE, N. C., June 14.-Miss

Emma Hayes, secretary of the New York In the afternoon the visitors were driv- branch exchange.

THE PEACE PRINCE

Twenty-Fifth Year of His Robber Is Overpowered in Former Ambassador Says Reign Being Celebrated in German Empire.

BERLIN. Jnne 14.-The jubilee festiviies in connection with the completion tonorrow of the twenty-fifth year of Emperor William's reign are in full swing hroughout the German empire. The Berlin newspapers print columns of dispatches today, regarding celebrations being held in the cities of Germany and abroad. Amnesties have been granted by the sovereigns of the various German states and endowments amounting to millions of dollars have been bestowed on philanthropic institutions.

The general emphasis laid upon the peaceful character of the German emperor and his reign is the striking fea-ture in a year of a billion-mark military This was summed up in a speech made by President Johannes Kaempf a a commemorative session today of the reichstag, which was attended by the imperial chancellor, Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, and all the ministers.

The "Peace Prince."

The speaker referred to Emperor Wil liam eminently as the "peace prince," who, having in his hand the mightiest instrument of war, used it not to pluck martial laurels, but to preserve the peace of the Germans and the world.

At noon today the emperor received the Turkish ambassador to Germany, Osheads of the Mohammedan and Catholic worlds. Andrew Carnegie, J. G. Schmidlapp and

R. S. Brookings, representing American peace societies, arrived here today. They will be received by the emperor tomorrow or Monday. had done any lobbying for he har-In recognition of the twenty-fifth antion Mr. Smith admitted that the har-niversary of the accession of Empero William to the German throne, President Wilson today sent the emperor the following message: "In the sincere hope that a long con tinuance of your majesty's benignant and peaceful reign may bring the great German people increased blessing, I offer to of your majesty's accession and my personal good wishes for your majesty's

DENIES JUDGE IS ACCUSED.

McReynolds Admits, However, Examiner Has Been Sent to Macon, Ga. In connection with reports that an agent of the Department of Justice was investigating the official conduct of Former Railroad Employe Principal United States 'District Judge Emory Speer, of Macon, Ga., Attorney General McReynolds stated yesterday that an examiner had been sent to Macon to report on the operation of the entire court, including the clerk's and marshal's offices He said that a new clerk had recently been appointed at Macon, and it was usual for the Department of Justice periodically to examine the court offices No charges, he said, had been preferred against Judge Speer.

HELLO GIRL IS NEEDED.

ator for Department Work, The government is in need of a telethe departments at Washington. The southern conference of the organization civil service commission will hold an examination July 16, to secure a list of eligibles. Besides passing a mental examination, the applicant must also have had at least two years' experience as an dead when found. operator in a large central office or

AT POINT OF GUN

Grocery at 1300 H Street Northwest.

PROPRIETOR IS ASSISTED BY PASSING PEDESTRIAN

Thief Escapes, Leaving Behind Him Revolver Used and Handkerchief Worn as Mask.

"Hands up, I want your money an want it quick. The foregoing was the sharp demand Sheahin, who conducts a fruit and grocery store at 1300 H street northwest, about 1 o'clock this morning, just as he stepped from behind the counter in his place of business to see who had entered the store. As Sheahin rounded the counter he was confronted by a young white man between eighteen and twenty years old, who had a handkerchief about his face and held a revolver in his hand. Pointing the revolver at the storekeeper the young man again made a demand for money. Mr. Sheahin, however, leaped upon the robber and bore him to the floor of the store before he had time to pull the trigger. During the his majesty the congratulations of the scuffle Mr. Sheahin shouted for help and George Williams of 1213 H street northwest, who was near the store at the time, heard his cries.

Jumps to Assistance.

Running into the store, Mr. Williams jumped to Mr. Sheahin's assistance. The two men, holding the robber to the floor of the store, took the revolver from him. They released their hold upon him after securing the weapon, and he jumped to his feet and ran out of the store. Besides the revolver he left behind a cap and handkerchief which he had about Mr. Sheahin telephoned to the first pre-Letter Written in 1861 at Fort your majesty the cordial felicitations of cinct station and notified the police of the government and people of the United the attempted robbery. Lieut. Harrison searching for the thief, but he had disappeared and at a late hour this morning had not been apprehended. He is described as being about five feet six inches tall, weighing about 130 pounds, with smooth face. He wore a brown suit. Police throughout the District have been instructed to look out for him.

SHOOTS WIFE, KILLS SELF.

in Tragedy at Hagerstown. special Dispatch to The Star. HAGERSTOWN, Md., June 14.-Bush A.

Willis, formerly a Western Maryland railroad employe, this afternoon shot and probably fatally injured his wife, and then cut his own throat, dying before physicians arrived. Mrs. Willis is at the hospital suffering from three bullet were mailed today by W. P. Capes, wounds and is hardly expected to recover. Willis was thirty-eight years old. He and his wife had not been living together for several months. He returned to pliance with a recent resolution adopt-Hagerstown today after an absence of ed by the conference. two weeks, and this afternoon called at If a majority of the mayors vote for the home of his wife on George street. Government Wants Telephone Oper- where she had opened a boarding house. a repeal of the law Gov. Sulzer will be It is said Willis was anxious to adjust their differences and when his wife declined to have anything to do with him lature which meets next Monday. he drew a revolver and opened fire on her phone operator to fill a position in one of in the presence of their three children. The first bullet struck Mrs. Willis in the shoulder, a second in the back of the head and the third in the left hip as she ran from the house and fell upon the porch of her next door neighbor's house. Willis then went to an upstairs room and ernoon, died of heart disease on the golf The valise contained the bishop's gold cut his throat from ear to ear. He was the Corporation Was Not Formed as Monopoly.

Police Justice Ankeney, in the capacity

BACON WITNESS

NEW YORK, June 14.-Robert Bacon, a director of the United States Steel Corporation, former ambassador to France, and former member of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co., testified today as a witness for the defense in the hearings of the government suit to dissolve the cor-

Mr. Bacon was a director of the Illinois and Federal Steel companies before they were acquired by the corporation and Woman Suffrage Congress figured in the organization of the parent company. He resigned from his directorate in 1905, he said, and was reelected in 1912.

The witness described in detail the negotiations which led up to the formation of the corporation and corroborated the testimony of Judge Gary that the idea of obtaining a monopoly or suppressing competition was not discussed by its or-

Position of Morgan.

"Mr. Morgan said that under no consideration would he take part in any organization that would restrain competition or be considered a monopoly," said the witness. "Mr. Morgan believed that f he could take part in the organization of this corporation it would be the greatest and crowning achievement of his business career. He believed that the effect of the corporation would be tremendously beneficial to the industrial fabric of this country. "Judge Gary, chairman of poration, has carried out Mr. Morgan's deas. He has changed the old methods. He has abolished the old order of warn other industries as well as in steel." Quizzed on Securities Company. ed Henry E. Colton of counsel for the place a double police force on duty.

fare and destructive competition and has been responsible for new conditions government on cross-examination "And you were in the formation as a director?"

"And the Northern Securities Company was dissolved?" Mr. Bacon admitted that the maintenance of pools was "probably" not con-trary to the policy of Charles M. Schwab of the corporation, but insisted that the policy of the corporation itself and that of Judge Gary was emphatically against and William E. Corey, former presidents

VOTE ON SUNDAY BASE BALL. Poll of Mayors of New York May

NEW YORK, June 14.-Blank ballots completes its work. to the mayors of New York state to determine wether a majority want the law against Sunday base ball repealed secretary of the conference of mayors of the state of New York, in com-

Lead to Law's Change.

requested to place the proposition be- Thief Leaves Night Shirt and Old fore the special session of the legis-

Falls Dead on Golf Links.

the Hotel Clinton, Philadelphia, this aft- linville, Ill. links of the Glenridge Country Club. chain and cross, valued at $300, and his of coroner, decided an inquest unneces- John Vickie of Atlantic City, on the ued at $50. In the valise substituted for An examination for preparator in sary. The family came to Hagerstown links, Mr. Weaver was playing alone and that of the bishop were found a night- on the English as they did in the openat Biltmore. The conference will end biology in the National Museum will be about twelve months ago from Charles had reached the seventeenth tee when shirt, a pair of old shoes and a pair of ing game and the ball seesawed up and with Sunday's cossions.

Town, West-Virginia.

OPPOSE EXEMPTION AMERICAN POLO OF LABOR BODIES

Members Against Sundry Civil Bill Provision.

CREATION OF A TARIFF COMMISSION FAVORED

45 Days Are Almost Unanimous in Regard to Both Measures.

By a heavy majority the constituent members of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, in referendum votes announced last night, opposed the exemption of labor and agricultural organizations from prosecution under the Meadowbrook Club this afternoon and anti-trust law as provided in the sun- thereby retains the trophy for at least dry civil bill, and favored, practically another year. The score was 41/2 to 41/4. unanimously, the establishment of a permanent tariff commission.

The vote on the referendum pertaining to prosecutions of labor and agricultural organizations was 669 against and 9 in favor of the measure. The 669 votes represented 169 organizations in thirty-five by both the fours in the crucial game this states with a total membership of 106,-495. The nine votes for the proposition were represented by four organizations tests in this country. in three states. The vote regarding the creation of tariff commission was 715 for the measure and 9 against it. The 715 votes represented 183 organizations in thirty-seven states. The nine votes represented six organizations in six states.

Restrictions on Use of Funds.

is made with the prohibition that none of the funds shall be used for the prosetions. The bill is about to go to President Wilson for his signature, and the result of the business men's vote on the subject was a rush of enthusiasts from stands to will reach him about the same time as

The business men contend that an offense against the provisions of the antitrust law are no less an offense when committed by combinations of labor or of agriculture than when committed by business combinations, and that a pro hibition of the use of funds appropriated for prosecuting offenders of the law amounts to a form of absolution from penalty for violating laws that are unrepealed and unamended on the statute

Vote Takes Forty-Five Days.

The business men of the country, through the organizations federated in the chamber, voted with practical unanimity for a permanent tariff commission, which would be bi-partisan in the American goal and then toward the character, nominated by the President poles of the Union Jack. and confirmed by the Senate, with authority to gather information, but without power to make recommendations except when called for by the body having power to institute tariff; legislation. The referendum had been forty-five days in process of development.

GIVEN CORDIAL WELCOM

at Budapest Recipient of Marked Hospitality.

BUDAPEST. June 14.—Budapest's hearty public and private welcome of the womans suffrage congress affords a marked contrast to the almost hostile attitude displayed by Vienna. The Capt. A. Noel Edwards. Austrian government and the municipal authorities have declined all recognition to the suffragettes, while the Hungarians are showing every

The municipality of Budapest had voted $2,000 for the entertainment of the delegates, the minister of educa- challenging four Tuesday. Capt, Cheape tion and burgomaster of Budapest have formally welcomed the congress, turn defeat into victory, and both Ritson the municipality will give a reception in honor of the delegates Monday evening and prominent citizens have arranged a variety of entertainments.

Hostility in Austria.

In Austria the official bodies have absolutely refused to render the congress assistance of any kind, the local supporters social and official life. To which must of the congress when soliciting official aid be added several hundred whose names, poration, take part in the formation of being told buntly that the only action that titles and distinctions assure them of the Northern Securities Company?" ask- the city was likely to take would be to welcome to the royal courts of England It is thought that the outrages by the militants in England are responsible for this act. The Viennese woman societies to obtain the smallet amounts, even as low as 4 cents. MISSOURI OFFICIAL COMING.

Will Confer With President on Railroad Valuation.

nouncement was made today that the lenge and series might be expected next public service commission of Missouri year unless unforseen obstacles should would comply with the request of the arise. railroads that the commission wait for the report on the physical value of the roads until a valuation board appointed tonight on the outcome of the strugby the interstate commerce commission

Chairman Atkinson of the Missouri commission left for Washington this afternoon to confer on Wednesday next with President Wilson, the interstate com- we will not be able to say when until merce commission and commissioners from various states regarding the valuation of railroads.

BISHOP'S VESTMENTS STOLEN. Shoes in Their Stead.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 14.-The police lise belonging to Bishop James Ryan of BLOOMFIELD, N. J., June 14.-Conrad the Roman Catholic diocese of Alton had Weaver, sixty years old, who lived at been stolen in a railroad station at Car-

With his wife and their daughter, Mrs. gold-plated crown and vestments, val-

FOUR VICTORIOUS

U. S. Chamber of Commerce Wins Second and Deciding Contest Against British Challengers.

> DESPERATE HOUR'S PLAY THRILLS 35,000 PRESENT

Referendum Votes Taken During Invaders' Excellent Teamwork Is More Than Offset by Individual Brilliance of Defenders.

> MEADOWBROOK CLUB, Westbury, L. I., June 14.-By the narrow margin of onequarter of one goal the American polo team won the second and deciding game of the international cup series at the The slight advantage of the United States four over the English challengers at the end of one hour of the most desperate kind of play is fully indicated by the trifling difference in the scores of the two teams. Polo play of the type shown afternoon has never been seen heretofore in either national or international con-

Spectacle Thrills 35,000.

The spectacle thrilled the crowd of 35,-000 persons until the dignified assemblage was fairly carried away and "rooted" like a typical base ball crowd during the final period of play. The shrill shricks of the feminine portion of the throng rose high above the deeper notes of encouragement om their male escorts, and the gathering swayed in unison as the ball was rushed up and down the field, first threatening one goal and then the other. When, finally, the clanging gongs announced that the last period was ended and the thousands realized that England's invasion had gone for naught there field that fairly engulfed the competing players, now shaking hands, while from outside the inclosure there arose a terproclaiming another American rictory in an international contest.

Desperate Playing the wider. Both the game and the setting were well worth the enthusiasm and excitement created. Clever team play like that shown by the American four Tuesday was, to be sure, missing, but in its place was one uninterrupted series of dashing and desperate plays that swayed the spectators to a degree seldom seen at sports of the type of polo. Never for a moment did the action lag. and the game was one continuous spec-

In this sixty-minute melee the English showed a better team attack than the cup-defending four, and their ponies, too, played the game as though they knew the international honor at stake. It was only by daring flashes of individual play that the Americans were finally able to tacle of rushes first in the direction of emerge victorious. Teamwork Proves Poor.

The substitution of L. E. Stoddard for 'Monte" Waterbury, made necessary by he accident to Waterbury Tuesday, and the moving back of "Larry" Waterbury to No. 2, caused a noticeable break in the team play of the Meadowbrook "Big Four." Neither Waterbury nor Stoddard appeared to get in combination and repeatedly missed the balls fed to them by both Whitney and Milburn. To offset this the forwards eventually cut loose with such desperate individual play that they actually overcame the defect of lax teamwork and won on merit a game which probably will stand for years as a polo "thriller." The English four, on the other hand, benefited by the change which brought A. M. Freake into the game in place of Freake a Tower of Strength.

The veteran internationalist proved a tower of strength, teaming up with both Capt. Cheape and Ritson in a manner which opened the eyes of those who had seen the opening performance of the fairly outdid himself with his efforts to and Freake played polo strokes fore and backhand that astonished the spectators The assemblage was fully in keeping with the play that developed. No competition, either amateur or professional in the history of American sports ever attracted such a notable gathering. The list of prominent box holders and grandstand patrons included hundreds of men and women of standing in both American Accept Defeat Gracefully.

While the English four and their suphave experienced great difficulty in raising the necessary funds and are thankful lengers should have lost the final game in expressing their opinion that the better team had won and loud in their praise of the perfect treatment accorded them both off and on the field. They were, however, far from convinced that the same result would develop in another series, and expressed the opinion JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., June 14 .- An- in an unofficial way that another chal-

"It was a fair game and we did our best," was the only comment Capt. Ritson of the British team had to make gle. The captain said he was so tired he could scarcely talk or even think. Capt. E. D. Miller, personal representative of the Duke of Westminster, expressed disappointment over the result. "We may challenge again, but after our return," he said.

"Score Tells Tale," Says Whitney "The score tells the tale," said Capt

Harry Payne Whitney of the American team. "The game was probably the closest ever played, and I have never taken part in a contest that was such a struggle from start to finish. I can't say any more, for I am all in. The terrific heat undoubtedly bothered at Alton were notified today that a va- both the English ponies and players and Mr. Freake was temporarily stunned by a mallet blow during the play. He soon recovered and, although complaining of giddiness from both the blow and the heat, played desperately until the end. The mishap to Mr. Freake and the fall

The Americans failed to get the jump of Devreuaux Milburn from his pony in the seventh period were the only acci-

EIGHT PARTS INCLUDING Star's Sunday Magazine And Colored Comic Section

ELEVEN LOSE LIFE BUILDING SUBWAY

SPEAKS AT BIG BANQUET

of Our Forefathers.

Peace and friendship between the republics of the western hemisphere was are believed to have been lost in a the keynote of a notable banquet given disastrous cave-in eighty feet under last night at the Pan-American Union ground on the new subway construction to bribe United States Senator John D. by resident Brazilian Ambassador Da at 56th street and Lexington avenue Gama in honor of Dr. Lauro Muller, this evening, when thirteen men of a minister of foreign affairs of Brazil, crew of thirty-two drillers and laborers

1906 of the then Secretary of State, reported still buried under many tons United States to do its part in pro- | will die. and sent to United States District At- moting and maintaining good felloworney A. J. McCormick here. The latter ship in North, South and Central Amerpresented the matter to the grand jury ica, and Dr. Muller and Senor Calvo, out the buried men. According to the minister from Costa Rica, and dean of police and fire authorities it may be the Latin American ministers, joined hours before some of the bodies are in lauding the benefits of such rela- reached. There appears to be no hope > ficials and others. The beautiful and artistic Pan-

While a hidden orchestra played "The Star Spangled Banner" Secretary Bryan rose to reply to the toast "The President "I do not know Ercanbrach nor never of the United States." He said that Presiheard of him until I received his letter in dent Wilson "is entirely committed to the doctrine of cementing the nations of this eople I know and suggested that I might | hemisphere into a harmonious and broth-built along the same lines.

"I mention our educational system," he continued, "because we now have in the gift in the hands of any people of the He also mentioned that the constitu-a "self-made man, the kind of man the Speech in Portuguese.

ed by Mr. Bryan, and the guests stood while the Brazilian national anthem was Senor Calvo answered to the toast o

Dr. Muller will be the guest of honor the attaches of the Brazilian embassy here, and at midnight tonight will leave in Bethlehem, and will then go to New York, where he will be formally received Tuesday by Mayor Gaynor. He is to

Secretary of War Garrison, Secretary

Tells Y. W. C. A. Convention of

Central Y. W. C. A., was the leader today at the sessions of the second annual at Black Mountain. She told the six hundred young women of the south of the great work being accomplished in New York by the Y. W. C.A., and the extensive plans under headway for the future. en over the George W. Vanderbilt estate

TRIES A HOLD-UP